COX "BARES PLOT TO BUY PRESIDENCY" IN HIS PITTSBURG TALK

Says G. O. P. Plans to Raise Fifteen Millions for Campaign.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Aug. 27.—Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee indicated here today that he would make further "expose" of Republican campaign funds within a week.

Governor Cox announced his conference here with Mr. White and Senator Harrison was for the purpose of discussing the effect of his speech at Pittsburgh last night at which he presented information to support his charges that a Republican fund exceeding $15,000,000 was being raised "in a conspiracy to buy the presidency." Governor Cox indicated that he was desirous of learning the impression created in New York by this address and said that in the next few days he was not going to make further reference to his charges.

Referring to an announcement from Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee that individual contributions would be restricted to $1000, Mr. Cox said:

Says Hays Falsifies
"Mr. Hays knows that such a statement isn't true. The methods used by the Republicans are to get some big fellow to give $20,000 or $25,000 after which dummy names are written down as contributors on the party's books. No one needs to worry about my not naming the sources of the funds which I have accused the Republicans of raising."

Mr. Cox said that if the senate committee investigating campaign funds really wished him to appear before it in Chicago, he would do so.

"A year ago I said that the Republicans were going back to the methods of Mark Hanna and that they would be defeated with their own money. This is still my belief."

When Mr. Cox was asked about reports concerning Democratic national finance a year ago, he said:

"I came on board the Democratic ship July 7. I know nothing about what happened before that time."

"One thing I can tell you though, is that I found a deficit but no money."

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Pittsburgh, Aug. 26.—Information to support his charges that a Republican campaign fund exceeding $15,000,000 was being raised "in a conspiracy to buy the presidency" was presented by Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate, in addressing a public meeting here tonight.

Governor Cox' data consisted almost entirely of matter taken from the Official Bulletin of Fred W. Upham of Chicago, treasurer of the Republican national committee, but his chief exhibit was a typewritten list purporting to show Republican campaign quotas imposed on fifty-one principal cities in twenty-seven states and aggregating $15,450,000.

Names of local subscribers, Governor Cox said, were ordered kept secret. Those quotas given as $2,000,000 for New York City, $750,000 for Chicago, $500,000 for Philadelphia, and ranging down to $25,000 for smaller cities like Albany, N. Y., and Atlanta, Ga., were said by Governor Cox to have been announced about the middle of July.

That Senator Harding, his Republican opponent, "was acquainted with the details" of the quota plan and that it was also approved by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, was charged by the Democratic candidate.

Shows Supposed Reports
From subsequent issues of the Official Bulletin Governor Cox quoted many reports from Republican workers throughout the country reporting going "over the top" and in cases exceeding the alleged quotas.

Announcement of the $15,450,000 metropolitan quotas, Governor Cox said, was made by Harry M. Blair, assistant to Treasurer Upham. A meeting was held in Chicago, Governor Cox said, at which Will H. Hays, the chairman of the Republican national committee, "spoke his blessings."

The Governor charged that typewritten sheets bearing the fifty-one cities' quotas were "distributed to those assembled" and he produced one of the alleged quota lists, but did not state how or where it was acquired. The quota plan, he said, was carried out like that of the Liberty loan campaigns.

Says it was Businesslike
That the reputed attempt to raise $15,450,000 from fifty-one cities in twenty-seven of the forty-eight states is fair evidence that the total national fund will be much larger was declared by Governor Cox, who said big business men were prominent on the Republican ways and means committee and that the raising of funds was on a business "salesmanship" basis.

JOKE ON GOVERNOR?
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 27.—Governor James M. Cox's schedule of Republican campaign fund quotas in 51 principal cities is a "phony list which I never heard of before," Fred W. Upham, Republican national treasurer, declared today.

HARMON MAN IS VICTIM OF BAD INSANITY CASE

Dixon Hospital Scene
of Commotion Last Evening.

Albert McDermott, aged 45, of Harmon township, was taken suddenly and violently insane last evening about 9:30 at the Dixon hospital, where he has been receiving treatment, and attacked a nurse, attempting to escape by jumping through a second story window dragging the nurse behind him. Dr. E. S. Murphy, who was the only man in the hospital at that hour was attracted to the room by the commotion and found the patient dragging the nurse and already to leap from the window.

Call County Officers
The physician struggled with the insane man until he had rescued the nurse and a call was sent to the sheriff's office. Deputies Phillips, Miller, Wilson and Miller answered the call, hurrying to hospital at once where it required the combined efforts of all four officers to subdue the enraged man. He was overpowered after a struggle and taken in an ambulance to the county jail.

Held Night Court
The efforts of physicians to quiet the insane man were fruitless, and at 1:30 this morning County Judge John Crabtree and County Clerk Fred G. Dimick were called to the jail and the man was tried before a commission composed of Drs. E. S. Murphy and George Powell and committed to the Watertown hospital for treatment.

Deputies Miller, Wilson and Miller left at 3 o'clock this morning to deliver him at that institution.

Mr. McDermott was brought to the hospital a few days ago for treatment from his home near Harmon. The case is a most pitiful one, his wife having died a few months ago leaving nine children, ranging from a few months to 12 years of age.

Police Drive Beggars From City Today

Two professional "moochers" who had started their soliciting cash funds in Dixon this morning, operated but a short time before they were in the police toils and ordered out of town. Early this morning a stranger, who claimed to be afflicted seriously with palsy, solicited cash on First street for a short time when he accosted one of the city officials and was taken to the police station. He was given a short talk and taken to the city limits and started toward Chicago, where he claimed his home.

About 10 o'clock the police received a call from the west end of the city where another stranger was soliciting funds, claiming to be partially paralyzed. He was taken in custody by the police and when threatened with a jail sentence for vagrancy admitted that he was not afflicted. He had solicited $2.35 from families in the west end. The police took him for a ride in the patrol to the city limits, where he likewise left hurriedly for the direction of Chicago, from whence he claimed to have come.

The police have requested that citizens, upon whom these strangers call and solicit funds, notify the police at once of their presence in the neighborhood and by so doing, assist the department in gathering in men who are unworthy of aid and keeping them out of the city. In many instances the police are notified some time after the strangers have called and experience considerable difficulty in locating them.

Urges Postal Banks to Pay Off U. S. Debt

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Aug. 27.—Extension of the postal savings system at an attractive rate of interest by the government to furnish "banking facilities to the great body of common people was urged here today as a financial reconstruction measure by Eugene Meyer, Jr., former managing director of the war finance corporation.

He appeared at the invitation of Senator William N. Calder of New York before the Senate special committee on reconstruction and production. The financier argued for amendment to existing legislation so as to authorize payment of a 4 per cent rate of interest on postal savings deposits instead of the 2 per cent as at present.

Proper organization and administration by the government, Mr. Meyer said, could gain savings deposits with a year sufficient to pay off the floating indebtedness of the United States government. He also expressed the opinion that with proper handling, deposits could be increased to such an extent as to cover in addition a large part, if not all of the Victory loan, amounting to more than $4,000,000,000 maturing in 1923.

"Every man, woman and child, foreign and native," he added, "has contact with the government through the post office at home and in business. If he becomes a depositor with his government as his banker, he is bound to take a greater interest in his government. The extension of the postal savings system would be the best single step by way of the Americanization of our foreign population."

Following the awarding of the prizes, the Phillips Brothers were offered money for their entry than has ever been offered for a boar of the Duroc breed in this state. The bid was offered by Bloomington breeders but was rejected. The prize boar will be brought back to the Phillips farm north of Nelson early next week.

LIPTON GOT HIS START TRUSTING HIS CUSTOMERS

Famous Tea Merchant
Made Good at His First Venture.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 27.—An interesting sidelight on business as a youth is told here at an intimate dinner in honor of the defeated cup challenger by Dr. J. H. Ostrander, an oculist and lifelong friend of the tea merchant and sportsman.

"With a few pounds he had saved, Tommy Lipton bought a sorry, old run-down provision shop on an obscure corner of Glasgow," Dr. Ostrander said. "The shop had changed hands a score of times and everybody had failed."

"The neighborhood was so poor and the housewives so thrifty that it was a sharp merchant who made a profit. Of course, business had always been conducted on a strictly cash basis."

"But Tommy Lipton inaugurated a system. In sickness or misfortune, I will carry any man until Saturday night. If you break faith, you will lose a friend and I will lose my business," he told his customers.

"He put them on their honor and his system won out because the sympathy of the boy for the sick and unfortunate reflected sympathy in the neighborhood and the trade in his store grew to new bounds. This was the foundation of his fortune. Any sailor on the waterfront would use his fist to force a debtor of Tommy Lipton to pay up. But there were few realists."

"I spent a day going through the enormous Lipton plant at Hoboken, New Jersey, following the yatch races, and I was impressed with the industry that Sir Thomas has built up through his uncanny instinct which permits him to trust the trustworthy and detect the sham from the real in human nature."

LAWYERS FAVOR FREE LEGAL AID FOR POOR IN U. S.

Charles Evans Hughes Says Bureaus Would Check Radicalism.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Louis Mo., Aug. 27.—Establishment of legal aid bureaus throughout the United States to give free legal advice to the poor, was recommended as a means of checking the spread of radicalism today by speakers today at the convention of the American Bar Association in session here. The association was asked to assist in every way to encourage the establishment of such bureaus, especially in the larger cities. The speakers included Charles Evans Hughes, Republican presidential nominee in 1916.

Would Check Discontent

"There is no more menace," Mr. Hughes declared, "than the discontent which is fostered by a belief that one cannot enforce his legal rights because of poverty. To spread that notion is to open a broad road to Bolshevism."

The Legal Aid society of New York, Mr. Hughes said gave advice to 34,000 applicants last year. Had it not been for the bureau he said the majority of the persons probably would have gone without proper legal counsel.

Heber Smith, a lawyer of Boston, said simplified court procedure would obviate the necessity for legal counsel in certain cases, but where the services of a lawyer were demanded they should be available, irrespective of the financial standing of the client.

"If men, because of poverty, cannot obtain counsel, the machinery of justice becomes unworkable and that, in turn means that rights are lost and wrongs go unredressed," he asserted.

EDWARDS HEARS HABEAS CORPUS WHITESIDE CASE

Reduces Bond of Frank Reap from $2,000
to $500.

A hearing on the habeas corpus writ issued by Judge Harry Edwards the first part of the week, ordering Sheriff Whitney of Whiteside county to appear before him with Frank Reap, who was being held in the county jail of that county under bonds of $2000 on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses, was held in Judge Edwards chambers at the court house Thursday afternoon. Attorney H. A. Brooks of this city appeared in the defense of Reap while State's Attorney Ludens was present for the prosecution.

After hearing the arguments of both attorneys, Judge Edwards held that he had acted within his jurisdiction in issuing the writ and granted Attorney Brooks permission to amend the petition. State's Attorney Ludens informed the court that in case the defendant should be discharged the sheriff of Whiteside county, who was present, held two warrants for a more serious charge which would be served immediately. Judge Edwards answered by stating that matter would be cared for when the time came.

Reduced Big Bond

Judge Edwards in giving his decision, held that the bond as set by Justice of the Peace Howell of Morrison in the amount of $2000 was outrageous and excessive and that in the exercising of good judgment, a bond of $500 would have been sufficient. He ordered that the bond be reduced from $2000 to $500 and in default of the payment of this amount, the defendant be remanded to the sheriff of Whiteside county. Reap was unable to furnish the reduced bond and was taken back to the Whiteside county jail at Morrison by Sheriff Whitney.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Wheat Price Humps and Corn is Higher

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Aug. 27. — Buying which was credited to shorts was a feature of the early wheat market. The demand for cash grain from the seaboard was less urgent and the market seemed to feel the effect of the offerings of Canadian grain at lower prices than previously here due to the difference in exchange.

Starting unchanged to 1/4c higher with December 2 3/4c and 2 3/4c and March 2 1/2c additional strength developed and prices soon advanced above yesterday's highest point.

Corn was steady to firm at the start. A house that usually acts for some of the large New York cotton traders was a fair buyer of September which combined with the strength in cotton stocks and hogs was mainly responsible for the upturn.

After starting unchanged to 1/4c higher with September 1 1/8c to 1 1/4c and December to 1 1/8c to 1 1/4c. The market followed wheat and started upward.

Oats showed a firm tone with scattered buying first quotations showing a net gain of 1/4c to 1/2c over yesterday's finish with September 67 1/2c and December 66 1/2c to 66 3/4c.

Provisions were strong because of the strength in grains and a 25c advance in the price of hogs, initial prices ranging from 7 1/2c to 20c above the previous close.

Wheat prices advanced around 6c from the previous day's close when offerings increased on the bulge and caused a reaction which resulted in part of the upturn being lost, but at the finish the market showed a net gain of 1/4c to 3/4c over the previous close with December 2 3/4c to 2 3/4c and March 2 1/2c.

Corn became settled later but prices held within narrow limits. There was plenty corn for sale on the bulge while on the dips offerings were taken readily. The close was 1/4c to 1/2c higher than yesterday's finish with Sept. 1 1/8c to 1 1/4c and Dec. 1 1/8c to 1 1/4c.

OPEN DIPLOMACY

Open diplomacy between nations is replacing open diplomacy between diplomats. It is far safer and goes further. British labor unions have introduced it. The unions have declared that if France boycotts Russia, the British miners will not mine coal for France. Since French industries largely depend upon British coal, the action of the labor unions has the warning of an ultimatum.

But, noingo excitement has been created. The French government cannot protest to the British government, because the latter has had no official hand in the pronouncement of the British trade unions. A strike of British miners would be sufficient to prevent the shipment of coal to France. No foreign government can make a diplomatic incident out of a strike on another country. For this reason, open diplomacy between nations goes much further than open diplomacy between diplomats.

It promises enormous possibilities of public education in international affairs. When one country makes an economic threat against another, in this strictly unofficial manner, retaliation may be expected. But, the principle of compromise is then ready to step in.

Each nation controls its own destiny through its open diplomacy. Each nation knows exactly what it is doing, step by step. That means each nation will take pains to explain its own point of view to its neighbor. So, in the end, policies of foreign countries will have to stand the scrutiny of an international examination. Common may then be trusted to find a way out.

BRINGING UP FATHER.

complaining that his genius couldn't stand the wearing down processes of matrimony. Eventually he found that irregular affairs were more wearing than the conventional thing. The destroyed his art. Now my dear, careless flirtations will wear down matrimony and destroy a lot of precious things besides art. I know you have n't asked for my personal opinion
but there you have it. Please forgive me for intruding in your affairs. Really I do not care whether you marry them up or not. But I do care tremendously for the name my husband asked me to wear. That's all."

It was all—and it was too much for Ann to take in, all at once, as I discovered that very afternoon.

The change from government control hasn't made it any easier to open a car window.

Says Lloyd George to Baron
Wrangel: If you've got to wrangle wangle by yourself.

In some quarters Wilson's note to France is interpreted as an effort to get the Poles to the poles.

There is no deprivation quite so hopeless as having nothing to grow about.

THE WINNING RUN.

What the batter brings in the winning run, or when someone casts the deciding vote, all eyes are fixed upon him and for the moment the whole world seems to turn on him.

But afterwards he takes his place amongst his fellows, for, in fact, his play or his vote were no more important than those of all the others,
without whose effort or whose thought his own would not have counted at all.

Who won the war? Joffre? Foch?
The doughboys that came in last to turn the scale? It was won by many millions of devoted persons who all did what they could, more than others, but who all helped.

Who gave mankind the telephone?
Bell got the patent. But he built on foundations laid by Franklin, Morse and others whose names no one remembers.

Marconi is given credit for the wireless; but what could he have done without the theories laboriously worked out by physicists that the public never heard of?

An individual man may help to make history; but he is himself a product of history, and all his attitudes show it.

When houses are built with the avidity with which people build motor cars, the housing situation will be relieved.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

MR. FROG IS MISSING.
Tingling, the fairy landlord, and his friends, Nancy and Nick, arrived at Phil Frog's house for the rent, just as Phil disappeared into the mud at the bottom of the pond.

Mrs. Frog appeared to be very busy scrubbing the children, and it took her quite a time to hear the pounding at her front door. The Frogs lived in a quaint house made of green lily pads, quite becoming to them all, exactly matching their complexions.

"Why I declare, Mr. Tingling!" Mrs. Frog beamed, trying to look delighted.

Suddenly she jumped up and opened the door. "Why, I declare, Mr.
Tingling!" she beamed, trying to look as delighted as though the little fairy-man were the postman on Christmas morning. Instead of the rent-collector,
"What a surprise this is! And how disappointed Philip will be when he returns."

"Tingling's face fell. 'Returns?'
Why, is he away? Didn't he know it was rent day?"

"He must have plum forgotten it,"

THE BOOK OF ANN
Careless Flirtations Will Wear Down
Matrimony, I Tell Ann

"Chrys says you're going down to Hortense's hat shop," was my greeting to Ann. "Take me with you, please. My car has a bad tire." (That was quite true.)

Ann turned red. I must credit her with that degree of sensitiveness.
"I—I'm to stop first at Mr. Ives' studio," she murmured. "I—I may have to wait there, about some cre-tonnes. But I can let the chauffeur take you down town, of course." At last Ann smiled charmingly. Evidently she was pleased to discover a neat way to shunt me.

"Oh, I'm in no hurry," I replied, as I slipped into the car. "Besides, I'd just love to see the inside of Ives' studio. They're perfectly splendid, I've heard."

But I was not to see the "period rooms" that morning. Claude Ives was waiting for Ann. He stood at the curb as the car pulled up, forestalling his man in his personal anxiety to assist the lovely young Mrs.
Lorimer. He was very tall and very dark, and his hair was polished and he looked like a successful cabaret dancer.

Most of the complimentary eagerness faded from his classic features
when he observed poor me sitting in a corner of the car.

He suspected at once that I was chaperoning Ann. When she would have stepped from the auto, murruring something indefinite about cretonnes, Mr. Ives took out his watch suddenly and exclaimed:

"I'm to meet my upholsterers.
They've been on strike you know. I've arranged to see the leaders in half an hour. So very sorry, Mrs. Lorimer.

An unexpected turn of events." With that he closed the door of the car and Ann found herself shut in beside me.
"I'll call you up this afternoon, Mrs.
Lorimer. By the way, I'm sending some of the heavy furniture out to the house today."

There was more chatter, but I scarcely heard it. I sank back into the depths of the seat with a sigh of relief. I had won the first battle.

Ann was, I must admit, sullen for the remainder of the morning. Hortense couldn't find a hat to please her.
But Hortense smiled—she was quite used to the kind, I suppose. Ann had picked up some of the smart woman's shopping tricks without much initiation.

Of course I took her to lunch at the daintiest sweet shop in town. And I bought for her the most marvelous formal bouquet, fashioned of gay candy flowers, circled with lace paper and tied with gauze ribbon. I humored Ann even while I wondered why we always try to placate our most perverse friends and relatives.

Finally, over the ices, I undertook
the first step in my sister-in-law's education.

"Ann, you don't know the gossip of the town yet," I said. "Claude Ives is an artist, doubtless, but he is not a gentleman. No, in spite of his lovely way of bowing to lady he is not. He is—he has—well he has broken up two perfectly good homes in this town, my dear."

"He's polite to me," sniffed Ann.
"Nobody—not even Chrys—could object to anything he has said to me."

"Not yet, my dear. And he isn't going to. He isn't going to have a chance. For the honor of the family, you see. The Lorimers are very par-

35 MILLIONS OF PEOPLE LOST TO EUROPE IN WAR

Big Setback in Population Due to War And Its Ravages.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Due to war influences, ten European nations engaged in the world war show a potential loss in population of 35,320,000 persons since 1914, according to a statistical research conducted by a Copenhagen society made public today by the American Red Cross. At the end of 1913, the society reported these nations had a population of 400,850,000, and under normal conditions this population should have increased by the middle of 1919 to 424,210,000. However, it had fallen by that time 389,030,000.

Causes of the abnormal falling off of population were attributed in the society's report as follows:

Killed in war 9,819,000; deaths due to augmentation of mortality in economic blockades, war epidemics 5,301,000; fall in birth rate 20,200,000.

DUNBAR'S SINGING BAND HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Ralph Dunbar, long recognized as a genius in the production of musical entertainment, has always contended that every attraction of his must grip everybody within earshot with the first note and proceed to transport him to musical Arcadia before he has time to relapse. He therefore does not tolerate any program fillers nor endurance contests. Every note, song, stunts, sight and sound must strike twice if it strikes at all, or be scrapped. This accounts for the tremendous popularity of his famous White Hussars, known from Kennebunk to Catlinas as a ripping military band, a singing ensemble of grand opera guage which often dips into jazz, a battery of musical funmakers which gives A. G. Field's troopers a few points, then makes the highbrows sit up and listen to Van de Water's exquisite "Sunset."

It is this company which will be heard at Assembly Park Auditorium on Monday night, Aug. 30th, under the management of Charles Eastman.

Mr. Cox was eating breakfast when his private car rolled into the Pennsylvania station. G. White, chairman Democratic national committee, Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, head of the speakers' bureau and other Democratic leaders stepped aboard the train to accompany him to New Haven.

Short Line Rail Men Get Wage Scale Boost

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The United States Railway Labor Board today handed down its first short line wage decision granting employees of the Bangor and Aroostook railroad in Maine the same wage scale recently fixed for the big roads in the $600,000,000 wage increase.

Like all other wage decisions of the board it is retroactive to May 1.

DIXON CASKET MFG. CO. TO ADD SAWING MILL TO BIG PLANT

Tripled Output Decided Upon By Stockholders at Meeting.

The stockholders of the Dixon Casket Manufacturing Co. of this city met a special meeting Wednesday, 76 per cent of stock being represented by stockholders present; and the majority of the remaining stock was represented by proxies. It was unanimously consented to increase the capitalization, the increase to be used to install a first class saw mill to manufacture the lumber used by the concern from logs and also to enlarge the present plant in general. To triple the output is the intention, and more people will be employed.

Otto Hilt of Mantia and Pekin, Ill. was present and gave his mature advice on how to enlarge and increase factory production. He is a member of his city council, a progressive business man and undertaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd of LeMotte, Ill. were interested stockholders present. The firm of Hurd & Hurd has been in the furniture and undertaking business for years, and their ripe experience will be of value to the factory they so faithfully patronize. A few more such stockholders as Hurd & Hurd would soon triple the output.

C. M. Taylor, newspaper man and undertaker, of Loyal, Wis., a very capable asset as a stockholder, was also present and many of his suggestions will be adopted by the factory. He consented to represent the factory in his state, and his sales and warehouses will be at Loyal.

The factory has enjoyed a big business and has paid ten per cent annually to stockholders, at the same time paying off the mortgage on the factory property, adding two dry kilns, an elevator and making many other improvements. With the new capitalization and improvements the local manufacturers will master the casket situation. The officers are: H. L. Fordham, president; M. W. Missman, vice president; H. W. Leydig, secretary; Amos Heimiller superintendent—all Dixon men.

Woman's Beauty No Secret

It all lies in the care she bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ills peculiar to her sex. The flashing eye, the elastic step and the clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. The distressed expression, lassitude, headaches and mental depression are only the tell-tale symptoms. Woman, so troubled should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs, and restore their health to a normal condition.

IS THE HAPPIEST WOMAN IN WORLD

Could Be Up Only a Few Hours a Day Before Taking Tanlac—Health is Splendid Now.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I believe I was about the most miserable woman in the world, but now I think I am the happiest," said Mrs. Anna E. White, 523 South Water St., Decatur, Ill.

"For twelve years I had suffered from a bad case of indigestion trouble," said Mrs. White. "My appetite had left me entirely, and when I did manage to eat a little something I was in perfect agony for hours afterwards with such terrible cramps they almost drove me double. I suffered from nausea and there was nearly always a heavy feeling in the pit of my stomach. I had awful headaches, often became dizzy and my kidneys worried me a great deal. I had burning pains through the small of my back and my nerves were so badly upset I could never get a good night's sleep. I was only able to be up a few hours each day, and could not do any of my house work at all."

"One day a friend urged me to try Tanlac, so I took her advice, and before I had finished my first bottle I was feeling much better, and today I can truthfully say all my troubles are gone and have actually gained twenty pounds in weight besides."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug & Book Co., and by the leading druggist in every town.

RUSSIANS ONLY WANT CHANCE TO FORM OWN GOVERNMENT, WRANGLER

General of South Russians Says Bolshevism Can Not Survive.

Sebastopol, Crimea, Aug. 22. — (By the Associated Press.)—Civil war in Russia would cease immediately if the Russian people were free to organize a government, according to their own wishes, General Baron Wrangel who was recognized as head of the South Russian government by France a few days ago declared here today. "They are not able to do this at present, he said because of the domination of the Soviet leaders."

General Wrangel expressed the gratification he felt over the note sent to Italy by the United States government relative to the Russian situation. He asserted his forces on all fronts are well equipped, and that the naval arm of the service was at last able to assist in the struggle against the Bolsheviks.

General Wrangel, who leaves tomorrow to personally direct the organization for forces rallying against the Bolsheviks, received the correspondent of The Associated Press at his home in this city. While he talked, aides and ministers grouped about his desk with telegrams and reports requiring his consideration.

"Ever since the south Russian army honored me by placing itself under my command, leaders of various Cossack organizations have been urging us to send expeditions into the Caucasus and Kuban regions to assist in throwing off the tyranny of the Bolsheviks," he said. "But it was not until the last fortnight that it was possible to meet their appeals."

Navy Is Assisting.

"Various Cossack expeditions we have sent to Yelisk and other points in Kuban and Don territory are advancing eastward, being heartily supported and joined by local Cossacks. Our navy is now retored to a point where it can effectively support our troops and the time is propitious for giving the Don, Kuban, Astrakhan and Terek Cossacks the organization needed for utilizing their unlimited resources."

(Dispatches received since the date of this interview state that Novorossisk has been captured by the South Russian troops.)

Regarding his recognition by the French government, General Wrangel said:

"I cannot conceal my surprise, that other allies have not given the same generous recognition of bloodshed, not for Russia alone, but to protect the entire civilized world against plunder, murder and despotism."

Asked as to the economic future of South Russia, General Wrangel said:

Control Some Grain.

"Control of some surplus grain has already been gained by our government and we will soon be able to export it, as transportation conditions are improving. When we control the Kuban and Don territories, Russia's richest grain sections, we will be able to export large quantities of food-stuffs in exchange for needed manufactured articles. We have already given France permission to export 6,000 tons of grain. This permission was given as an expression of our appreciation of the gracious action of France in extending recognition to our government."

General Wrangel insisted the Bolshevik military and political strength was greatly over-estimated. Even when working as a subordinate to General Denikine, he urged that an undemocratic government, such as that led by Nikolai Lenine could not live in Russia because the peasants would not tolerate it indefinitely, and he declared today he was still of the same opinion.

Like nearly all Russian officers, General Wrangel has his hair clipped short for summer comfort and this accentuates the length of his slender, sensitive face. He is six foot tall, and looks even taller in the skirted grey Cossacks' tunic, falling to his boot tops, belted tight at his slight waist and ornamented with horizontal rows of ivory cartridge cases across his chest.

MILLION (MEX) A DAY IS RUSSIAN HI COST RECORD

Sebastapol is Stagnant Port—Crimea is Unhappy State.

By Associated Press 1-ased Wire
Sebastopol, Aug. 27.—One million Don rubles were purchased for $25 here today by the correspondent, but, after he paid 60,000 rubles for a meal 10,000 more for a short cab ride, at the close of the day was a bankrupt millionaire. Crimea is in an unhappy situation. It has 24,000,000,000 of rubles but no real money and there is little to buy here.
The harbor is filled with idle and disabled warships and merchantment.

There are no cargoes on the docks. Street cars have been stopped because of the lack of coal. Stores have no stocks, and streets are deserted except for an occasional carriage, some wounded soldiers or armed patrolmen. The only life here is on the beaches at the entrance to the harbor.

Life On the Beaches.

There, bathers for the most part women and wounded officers and soldiers, pass the time when not reading bulletins from the various south Russian fronts at the official news bureau. Most women here have no hats but wear veils or handkerchiefs about their heads. Many are without stockings, but are charming, nevertheless, in bright inexpensive gowns which they dignity with an erect and independent carriage.

Six years of war have not broken the spirit of South Russian women. They "carry on" with the slight means at their disposal without complaint and give whatever encouragement they can to men battling with the Bolsheviks along the Dnieper river and in the Don and Kuban territories.

ROWING RACES START.

Brussels, Aug. 27.—Crews entered for the Olympic regattas began their contests over a 2,000 metre course in the Brussels maritime canal here today. With approximately a dozen nations represented and more than forty craft to compete in the five classifications scheduled, the preliminaries will be continued tomorrow with the finals on Sunday.

GO TO RACES.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Merriman, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schumm, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lievan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fulfs will form an automobile party leaving early tomorrow morning for Elgin to attend the races.

Root is Champion of Smaller Nations

THE HAGUE—In the course of the jurists' conferences which have been held here to draw up plans for the organization of an International High Court of Justice, Raoul Fernandez, the Brazilian delegate, found Ellihu Root a strong supporter in his fight for the interests of small nations.

At two different occasions Mr. Root succeeded in inducing the conference to adopt articles which Senator Fernandez proposed but which only met with a cold reception until Root came to Fernandez' assistance.

The first case was the right of the country which had no judge in the court to name a judge to sit while that country's case was before the court.

The second case in which Fernandez and Root closely collaborated was when the latter's proposal to extend the power of supplementary judges was about to be rejected.

According to the original plan the vacancies caused through the absence of judges could only be filled when at least three judges were absent. Mr. Root, however, supported the Fernandez amendment, and the substitute takes the function as soon as one judge is absent. In these two cases the small powers are closely interested.

The small powers are to have a majority in the high court, there being five judges representing the big powers and six representing the small powers while also the substitutes belong to the small countries.

This majority was endangered by the old plan when in case of two absent judges the small powers vacancies would not be filled and the big powers would have a majority of five to four.
